

Public Agreement
On the Procedure for Publishing Author's Articles in the journal “Asian Journal of Criminal Justice and Forensic Studies”

Astana, Republic of Kazakhstan

« ___ » _____ 20__

1. General Provisions

- 1.1. This document constitutes a public offer (hereinafter – the “Agreement”, the “Offer”) of the Limited Liability Partnership Private Institution “Eurasian Accreditation Agency (EAA)” – the publisher of the scientific journal Asian Journal of Criminal Justice and Forensic Studies (hereinafter – the “Journal”), addressed to an indefinite number of persons – authors of scientific articles, in accordance with Articles 395, 396 and 447 of the Civil Code of the Republic of Kazakhstan and the provisions on public contracts and adhesion contracts.
- 1.2. The text of this Agreement is published on the official website of the Journal at: <https://asianjustice.kz/license-agreement>, which shall be deemed a public offer.
- 1.3. Publication of the text of the Agreement on the website constitutes an offer to enter into an agreement on the terms specified herein with any author submitting their materials for publication.

2. Procedure for Conclusion (Adhesion)

- 2.1. The Agreement is concluded by the author’s (hereinafter – the “Author”, the “Licensor”) adhesion to the terms of this Agreement through their full and unconditional acceptance (acceptance).
- 2.2. Prior to acceptance, the content of the article may be preliminarily coordinated between the Author and the Editorial Office of the Journal (hereinafter – the “Licensee”).
- 2.3. Acceptance is deemed to have occurred upon the Author’s submission of their materials (article manuscript and accompanying files) to the Editorial Office of the Journal by any of the permitted means (by e-mail, via an online submission system, etc.).
- 2.4. The Agreement concluded under this Offer is an adhesion contract, the terms of which may not be altered by the Author, except in cases expressly provided for by the legislation of the Republic of Kazakhstan.

3. Status of the Parties

- 3.1. Author – a natural person (or a group of persons – co-authors) holding exclusive economic rights to an original scientific text and granting the Licensee the rights to use the work under the terms of this Agreement.
- 3.2. Licensee – the Limited Liability Partnership Private Institution “Eurasian Accreditation Agency (EAA)”, acting as the publisher and/or owner of the Journal and exercising the rights of first publication and distribution of the article.

4. Legal Regime of Intellectual Property Rights

- 4.1. The Author retains their personal non-property rights and any economic rights not transferred to the Licensee under this Agreement.
- 4.2. The Author grants the Licensee a non-exclusive licence to use the article under the terms of the international Creative Commons Attribution (CC BY) licence or another licence specified on the Journal’s website, including:
 - the right of first publication of the article in the Journal in any language used by the Journal;
 - the right to translate the article into the state, Russian or English language and to publish such translation;
 - the right to reproduce, distribute and make the article publicly available in printed and/or electronic form;
 - the right to place the article and/or its translation on the official website of the Journal, in electronic databases, repositories, bibliographic and full-text systems.

4.3. The Author agrees that third parties may freely use the published article provided that authorship and the original source of publication are acknowledged.

4.4. The actual placement of the article in the Journal (in print or electronic form) confirms the transfer of rights to the Licensee to the extent defined in this Agreement.

5. Author's Warranties

5.1. The Author warrants that:

- they hold all necessary rights to the article;
- the article is original and has not been previously published, or, in the case of prior publication, proper references to the original source have been made;
- no third-party rights are infringed, including rights to images, quotations, research results, etc.

5.2. In the event that third parties assert claims related to the infringement of their rights, the Author shall bear liability and shall settle such claims independently and at their own expense.

6. Liability of the Parties

6.1. For non-performance or improper performance of obligations under the Agreement, the Parties shall be liable in accordance with the Civil Code of the Republic of Kazakhstan and other regulatory legal acts of the Republic of Kazakhstan.

6.2. The Licensee shall not be liable for:

- the use of the article by third parties in accordance with the CC BY licence or other open licences;
- distortions of the content of the article resulting from improper citation by third parties.

7. Personal Data

7.1. By submitting an article to the Journal, the Author consents to the processing of their personal data (full name, place of employment, position, contact details, etc.) and the personal data of the co-authors, to the extent necessary for the editorial processing of the article and the publication of information about the author team, in accordance with the Law of the Republic of Kazakhstan "On Personal Data and Their Protection".

7.2. The Licensee is entitled to publish information about the authors in the Journal and on the website, as well as to transmit such information to bibliographic and abstract databases.

8. Dispute Resolution

8.1. All disputes and disagreements shall be resolved by the Parties through negotiations.

8.2. If the Parties fail to reach an agreement, the dispute shall be submitted to a court at the location of the Licensee, in accordance with the legislation of the Republic of Kazakhstan.

9. Applicable Law

9.1. The legislation of the Republic of Kazakhstan shall apply to this Agreement.

9.2. In all matters not regulated by this Agreement, the Parties shall be governed by the Civil Code of the Republic of Kazakhstan and the legislation of the Republic of Kazakhstan on mass media and copyright.
